

Book Club questions for the Womb.

1. Whose death impacted you the most?
2. Was there anyone who did not die that you wish had?
3. Without Eden to anchor him on earth, Kane vanishes. Do you think Kane will be able to return?
4. Everyone in the Womb is lost and searching for something. What is the hardest thing you have searched for?
5. Have you ever known someone like Baby, who was too eager to grow up too fast?
6. Sam always does what is right and expected of him only to lose everything. Have you ever been in that situation and lost your faith or questioned God?
7. Jareb finds life too hard to face and is looking for any form of escape. Have you ever felt that overwhelmed or desperate?
8. Ophelia's thirst to better know God has left her negligent in understanding the love of God. Have you ever known people like this? If so, without dragging them to a carnal wasteland, how do you help people learn to let go of their judgement and love everyone as God does?

9. Billie Jean suffered from a crippling lack of self-worth. In her quest to find love and acceptance, she easily confuses love with sex. What could have changed her self-image, or could it have been changed, to give her a different ending?

10. Which character or which character's struggle did you relate to the most and why?
